an excellent remedy for the annoyance. About the Cleveland Baby.

One of the daintiest presents yet received by the youngest member of the leveland household came from Mrs. Carlisle It is a cloud of elderdown cloth of wonderful lightness and softness, embroidered in La France roses tled together with pink bow knots and bound with satin ribbon an inch and a half wide. Another one of the baby's gifts is a small cap made of alternate rows of Valenciennes insertion and fine embroidery and edged with a little frill of Valenciennes lace. Replies and hanks for the numerous congractlatory letters and telegrams are waitng until Mrs. Cleveland is herself able o dictate them. Meantime it is conidentially stated that the voice of the President's vouncer daughter is audible even in his office. For a Girl of Sir. This is a pretty frock for a girl of six. It is of shot silk, with a plaited yoke and full back; velvet cuffs, and should cape falling over puffed sleeves.
